

Date: Sunday,

04/10/ 11

Time: 3:00 p.m.

CAS Undergraduate Research Forum

Inaugurate NATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH WEEK with this event. Students from three disciplines will present their current research.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

PRESENTERS

Stacy Amos (Sociology)

David Davenport (History)

Alex Durham (Sociology)

Vanessa Eccles (English)

Pat Harmon (History)

Becky Johnson (History)

Sarah Newman (English)

Lisa Nunez (English)

Room: Harrison Room

Contact person: Dr. Martin Olliff

CAS UG Research Forum Schedule, 4/10/11

3:00—3:15 pm          Greeting and Introduction          Harrison Room

Remarks by: Dr. Don Jeffrey          Vice Chancellor, Dothan Campus
Interim Dean, College of Arts and Sciences

3:20—4:40 pm          Concurrent Sessions

SESSION A          122 Malone Hall

Moderator: Dr. Jeneve Brooks

Presenters:

Vanessa Eccles (English) "Falstaff and The Seven Deadly Sins"

Alex Durham (Sociology) "Mercy Me: Environmentalist Themes in U.S. Popular Song, 1964-2010"

Lisa M. Nunez (English) "Stop The Madness"

David Davenport (History) "Winston County, Alabama During Secession and the Civil War"

SESSION B          123 Malone Hall

Moderator: Dr. Kris Ross

Presenters:

Sarah Newman (English) "Milton's Paradise Lost within Hardy's Tess"

Becky Johnson (History) "The United States' Various Responses to the Armenian Genocide"

Stacy Amos (Sociology) "Going Native: The Importance of Local Narratives and Truth Telling after the BP Oil Spill"

Pat Harmon (History) "George Washington and the Masonic Teachings of Justice and Fortitude"

4:45—5:30 pm          Refreshments          Harrison Room