

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

2013 STUDENT RESEARCH FORUM

TROY UNIVERSITY DOTHAN CAMPUS
HARRISON ROOM

SUNDAY, APRIL 14, 2-6 pm

To inaugurate Heritage Week and National Undergraduate Research Week, Troy University Dothan Campus will host the 2013 Student Research Forum.

The Program Committee solicits proposals for consideration from ALL Undergraduate and Graduate students. ALL subjects and disciplines are open for inclusion.

Research Presentations should be no longer than 20 minutes and may include any media supported by hardware and software available in current classrooms.

Research Posters should be no larger than 42" x 56" and be mountable on a tabletop or directly to the wall. Posters must be accompanied by at least one presenter for the Poster Session/Reception following the concurrent Presentation Sessions.

Proposals and nominations should contain full presenter contact information, professor's name (if applicable), name of the student's college, a presentation title, and an abstract of the presentation (approximately 250 words). Please note what kind of presentation media you will need (PowerPoint, web access, etc.).

Submit proposals either directly to your professor or if no professor is advising you directly in this research, to Dr. Martin T. Olliff, molliff@troy.edu. Deadline is March 15, 2013.
