Rappahannock Community College

TRANSFER STUDENTS

TROY UNIVERSITY IS A STUDENTS' GATEWAY TO A BACHELOR'S DEGREE!

Through an articulation agreement between Rappahannock Community College and Troy University (TROY), general education/general studies courses may transfer from Rappahannock Community College to TROY. This means that you can transfer credits towards your bachelor's degree and satisfy the general education component of the first two years of TROY's bachelor's programs.

This applies to the completion of one of the following transfer-oriented associate's degrees:

- Associate in Applied Science in Administration of Justice
- Associate in Applied Science in Business Management

STEPS TO TAKE

- For maximum credit and to avoid delaying degree completion, plan early. Your school counselor will work with you and help you to coordinate with a TROY advisor.
- Transferable credits with a grade of C or better will be accepted

Students must meet the eligibility requirements set forth by Rappahannock Community College and TROY. More information is available at <http://www.troy.edu>.

For more information, you can speak with a student services representative at (804) 765-3571 or email them at ftlee@troy.edu.

- Flexible transfer policy
- A wide variety of undergraduate degree and certificate programs
- Financial aid options
- A full array of student services

The articulation agreement can be found at <http://www.troy.edu>

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice is designed to prepare students for professional and research careers in criminology, criminal justice and related fields. Students seeking this degree will examine and critically analyze the criminal justice system from a psychological, sociological, legal and administrative perspective. While the curriculum is intensely devoted to law enforcement, courts and corrections, students will also become knowledgeable about such issues as domestic and international terrorism, drugs, crime causation, victims, ethics, white collar/corporate crime, juvenile delinquency and gangs. Ultimately, the mission of the program is to produce graduates who possess the necessary skills and knowledge to function in the twenty-first century criminal justice system.

TROY's Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice is often chosen by students who are:

- Preparing for employment in municipal, state and private agencies; federal law enforcement agencies; administrative positions in municipal or state agencies; or as instructors in police education programs
- Seeking a career in probation, parole, or institutional services with either adults or juveniles
- Preparing for law school, court administration, paralegal work or legal research positions
