Guidelines for Supervisors

Directing Graduate Assistantships and Fellowships

These guidelines are provided for deans, associate deans, chairs, and all faculty members supervising or directing Assistantships and/or Fellowships. Please read carefully.

POSTING POSITION OPENING

It is the responsibility of the hiring Department/College to post all Graduate Assistantship and Fellowship positions on TROY's on-line employment system (PeopleAdmin). See Appendix A for instructions on posting positions through PeopleAdmin.

STUDENT APPLICATION PROCESS

Students may search and apply for posted Graduate Assistant and Fellow positions available through TROY's career site at <https://www.troyuniversityjobs.com>. The student will need to attach a resume, cover letter, unofficial transcript, and any additional information required by the department to the online application. The student will need to apply their online separate application to each position of interest.

AWARD AND NOTIFICATION

Students will receive an email from the TROY Human Resources Office concerning whether or not they have been hired.

RESPONSIBILITIES FOR DIRECTING GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

The Program Director is responsible for scheduling a counseling session with the Assistant/Fellow prior to commencing work. During this session the Program Director should complete the "Job Duties" section of the Graduate Assistantship/Fellowship Job, Duties and Performance Evaluation form (Appendix D), defining in detail the required duties, expectations, and special projects. Both the Graduate Assistant/Fellow and Program Director must sign the form and the Graduate Assistant/Fellow be given a copy.

During the semester, the faculty supervisor will conduct planned and periodic evaluations of the student's performance. At the end of each semester, all Graduate Assistants/Fellows will be formally evaluated by their Program Director and recommended for continuation or termination. Graduate Assistants/Fellows will not be approved for continuation until their evaluation for the previous semester has been received by the Graduate School.

NOTE: Supervisors are responsible for submitting an action through PeopleAdmin to terminate Graduate Assistants/Fellows PRIOR TO THEIR LAST DAY OF WORK (indicating their last day in the "effective date" field).

PURPOSE OF GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP/FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The objectives of the Graduate Assistantship/Fellowship program are to provide professional experiences that complement graduate instruction and research while contributing financial assistance to students pursuing graduate degrees. This assistantship/fellowship program is designed to aid in the successful completion of the degree pursued and to enhance career opportunities through applied professional experiences.

The Graduate Assistantship/Fellowship Program is administered by the Dean of the Graduate School. Additional questions regarding this program should be directed to the Dean of the Graduate School.

COMPLIANCE

Troy University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. The University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, pregnancy, national origin, or disability and no qualified person shall, on the basis of disability, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity that receives or benefits from federal assistance.

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY

To qualify for a Graduate Assistant/Fellow appointment, a student must satisfy the following general eligibility requirements. Additional eligibility requirements may exist according to teaching and/or research positions.

1. Must possess an undergraduate degree with an excellent academic record;

2. Must be pursuing a graduate degree in the field to which assigned or in a related field in which the student has substantial experience;
3. If applying for a Research or Teaching Assistantship or Fellowship the student must be unconditionally admitted to a graduate program at Troy University;
4. Must be registered in the Graduate School for at least six graduate semester credit hours during a regular semester or summer term.

An exception to this requirement may be made by the Dean of the Graduate School under the following conditions:

- a) If a student is classified as a graduate student and is required to take undergraduate courses for the graduate degree, either a minimum of nine undergraduate hours or a minimum of three graduate hours and six undergraduate hours must be taken to qualify for a graduate assistantship.
 - b) If a student has made satisfactory progress toward obtaining the graduate degree and needs fewer than six graduate hours to complete the degree, the student may be considered for an assistantship.
6. When tuition scholarship is included in the graduate assistantship, this award may impact the student's eligibility for federal programs of financial assistance. Students are responsible for checking with the Office of Financial Aid.
 7. International graduate students must be in compliance with all Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) requirements.
 8. Students who are required to submit Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores as part of their graduate admission requirements must have a score of 79 (Internet-based test) or 213 (computer based test or 550 (paper-based test) to be considered. Additionally, evidence of English language proficiency may be required for some positions.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS

Criteria for the Award of Graduate Assistantship Tuition Scholarships

All recipients of the Graduate Assistantship Tuition Scholarship award will at all times meet the “general eligibility” criteria set forth in the Guidelines for Graduate Assistantships and Fellowships and any additional academic standards set forth by the individual graduate programs. Additionally, recipients will comply with all stated policies and Standards of Conduct outlined by the University. Any recipient found in violation of University policy or not upholding these stated standards will no longer be eligible for the GA Tuition Scholarship award.

Fall and Spring Semesters: Graduate Assistantship (GA) Tuition Scholarships will be awarded to all qualified and approved Graduate Administrative, Teaching and Research Assistants for payment of graduate tuition for six semester hours or fewer for the fall semester and six semester hours or fewer for the spring semester. The GA Tuition Scholarship may be awarded only for 5000-, 6000- or 7000-level, and non-eTROY courses. The GA Tuition Scholarship shall not be used toward any undergraduate prerequisite courses. Scholarship awards shall be approved by the Dean of the Graduate School and distributed through the Financial Aid office located on the Troy University campus.

Summer Semester: Limited Graduate Assistantship Tuition Scholarships may be awarded to Graduate Administrative, Teaching and Research Assistants for payment of graduate tuition for three semester hours or less for the summer semester. Summer tuition scholarships will be awarded based on demonstrated academic scholarship and need of the University. The Dean of the Graduate School will receive applications for summer tuition scholarships beginning February 15th of each year. Scholarship awards will be announced no later than May 1. The GA Tuition Scholarship may be awarded only for 5000-, 6000- or 7000-level and non-eTROY courses. The GA Tuition Scholarship shall not be used toward any undergraduate prerequisite courses. Scholarship awards shall be approved by the Dean of the Graduate School and distributed through the Financial Aid office located on the Troy University campus.

Interested graduate assistants may complete the Application for Graduate Assistant Summer Tuition Scholarship located in Appendix E. Students must be registered for summer classes to be considered. In addition to the stated criteria for the award of the GA Tuition Scholarships, successful summer applicants will demonstrate academic scholarship. The summer awards will be highly competitive. A graduate faculty committee, appointed by the Graduate Dean, will select the recipients. Summer award recipients will be notified no later than May 1.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Graduate Administrative Assistant (GAA)

Graduate students who are enrolled at the University and employed to support various academic, administrative and service functions of the University.

Appointment Criteria: All candidates must be eligible for and seeking graduate admission. Once admitted to the graduate program, the student must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and make satisfactory progress toward the degree to continue as a Graduate Administrative Assistant.

Remuneration: Remuneration is not to exceed $7,000 per calendar year paid over 12 installments and the student will receive an institutional scholarship for out-of-state tuition.

Academic Enrollment: A Graduate Administrative Assistant must be enrolled as a graduate student and comply with the appropriate academic course load and workloads. The workload for full-time Graduate Administrative Assistants will not exceed an average of 20 hours per week over the term of the appointment. Minimum full-time graduate enrollment will vary according to the graduate assistant's work assignment and in accordance with the current Graduate Catalog.

Workload	Minimum Graduate Academic Course Load	Maximum Graduate Academic Course Load
1.0 (20 contact hours)	6 sh	9 sh
0.50 (10 contact hours)	9 sh	(overload permitted)

The academic dean of the discipline and the Dean of the Graduate School must approve, in writing, exceptions to the above guidelines.

Performance Evaluations: The supervisor must conduct a job performance evaluation (see Appendix D) once each semester and counsel the Graduate Administrative Assistant accordingly. Failure to perform required duties may lead to immediate cancellation of the assistantship.

Reappointment: Reappointment depends on satisfactory performance, funding availability, and the supervisor's endorsement.

Graduate Research Assistant (GRA)

Graduate students who are enrolled at the University and employed to assume research-oriented responsibilities within the University under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The research may or may not be a research thesis project.

Appointment Criteria: All candidates must be unconditionally admitted to the graduate program. Successful candidates must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and make satisfactory progress toward the degree to continue as a Graduate Research Assistant.

Remuneration: Remuneration is not to exceed $7,500 per calendar year and the student will receive an institutional scholarship for out-of-state tuition.

Academic Enrollment: A students who serves as a Graduate Research Assistant must be enrolled as a graduate student and comply with the appropriate academic course load and workloads. The workload for full-time Graduate Research Assistants will not exceed an average of 20 hours per week over the term of the appointment. Minimum full-time graduate enrollment will vary according to the graduate assistant's work assignment and in accordance with current Graduate Catalog as listed in the table below.

Workload	Minimum Graduate Academic Course Load	Maximum Graduate Academic Course Load
1.0 (20 contact hours)	6 sh	9 sh
0.50 (10 contact hours)	9 sh	(overload permitted)

The academic dean of the discipline and the Dean of the Graduate School must approve, in writing, exceptions to the above guidelines.

Performance Evaluations: The supervisor must conduct a job performance evaluation (see Appendix D) once each semester and counsel the Graduate Research Assistant accordingly. Failure to perform required duties may lead to immediate termination of the assistantship.

Reappointment: Reappointment depends upon satisfactory performance, funding availability, and the supervisor's endorsement.

Graduate Teaching Assistant (GTA)

Graduate students who have been unconditionally admitted to the University, who have earned 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline and who are employed in an instructional role in a class within a specific academic unit. Graduate Teaching Assistants may be assigned duties equivalent to adjunct faculty to include, but not limited to, preparing lectures, lecturing, conducting classes and study sessions, administering exams, grading exams, and papers, and assigning course grades. All GTAs must be under the direct supervision of a faculty member experienced in the teaching discipline, receive regular in-service training, and have planned and periodic evaluations by their supervisor. See qualification criteria listed below prior to applying.

Appointment Criteria: All candidates must be unconditionally admitted to the graduate school. Successful applicants must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and make satisfactory progress toward the degree in order to continue as a Graduate Teaching Assistant.

Graduate Teaching Assistant Qualifications for Teaching Lower Level Undergraduate

Courses: Graduate Teaching Assistants have the primary responsibility for teaching a course for credit and/or for assigning final grades for such a course. With few exceptions (see below), the student must have earned a masters in the teaching discipline or completed at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.

The 18 graduate semester hour course requirement does not apply to graduate teaching assistants engaged only in assignments such as assisting in laboratory sessions and preparations, teaching physical education or other activity courses, attending or helping prepare lectures, grading papers, keeping class records, and conducting discussion groups.

The University may appoint Graduate Teaching Assistants whose first language is not English with documented “evidence” of proficiency in spoken English. Such evidence would include a score of 79 (Internet-based) or 213 (computer-based) or 550 (paper-based) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language [TOFEL] exam. Additionally, evidence of English language proficiency may be required for some positions.

The University will provide a structure for administrative oversight at a level above that of the individual academic unit for Graduate Teaching Assistants to ensure conformity with institutional policies and procedures.

Graduate Teaching Assistant Qualifications for Teaching in Developmental Programs:

Graduate teaching assistants who teach in developmental programs must hold a baccalaureate degree in a discipline related to the teaching assignment and have either teaching experience in a discipline related to the assignment or graduate training in developmental education.

Remuneration: Remuneration is not to exceed $8,000 per calendar year and students receive an institutional scholarship for out-of-state tuition.

Academic Enrollment: A Graduate Teaching Assistant must be enrolled as a graduate student. A Graduate Teaching Assistant may not enroll in a course that he or she teaches. The workload for full-time a Graduate Teaching Assistant will not exceed an average of 20 hours per week over the term of the appointment. Minimum full-time graduate enrollment will vary according to the Graduate Assistant’s work assignment and in accordance with the current Graduate Catalog as represented in the following table.

Teaching Load	Minimum Graduate Academic Course Load	Maximum Graduate Academic Course Load
1 (1 – 3 sh class)	6 sh	9 sh
2 (2 – 3 sh classes)	3 sh	6 sh
1 (1 - 1 sh class)	9 sh	(overload permitted)
2 (2 - 1 sh classes)	9 sh	(overload permitted)
3 (3 – 1 sh classes)	6 sh	9 sh

The academic dean of the discipline and the Dean of the Graduate School must approve exceptions to the above guidelines in writing.

Performance Evaluations: The supervisor must conduct a job performance evaluation (see Appendix D) once each semester and counsel the Graduate Teaching Assistant accordingly. Failure to perform required duties may lead to immediate termination of the assistantship.

Reappointment: Reappointment depends upon satisfactory performance, funding availability, and the supervisor’s endorsement.

Graduate Administrative Fellow (GAF)

Graduate students who are enrolled at the University and employed to support academic and administrative functions of the University.

Appointment Criteria: All candidates must be eligible for and seeking graduate admission. Successful candidates must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and make satisfactory progress toward the degree to continue as a Graduate Administrative Fellow.

Remuneration: The Graduate Administrative Fellowship is totally sponsor-funded (grant and/or contract-supported funds), may not exceed $18,000 per calendar year and may include an institutional scholarship for out-of-state tuition, if applicable. Should sponsored funding be withdrawn or terminate during a contract period, the fellowship will terminate without additional notice. The University is not financially obligated in any way to continue the fellowship.

Academic Enrollment: A Graduate Administrative Fellow must be enrolled as a graduate student and must comply with the appropriate academic course load and workloads. The workload for a full-time Graduate Administrative Fellow will not exceed an average of 20 hours per week over the term of the appointment. Minimum full-time graduate enrollment will vary according to the graduate fellow’s work assignment and in accordance with the current Graduate Catalog as provided in the following table.

Workload	Minimum Graduate Academic Course Load	Maximum Graduate Academic Course Load
1.0 (20 contact hours)	6 sh	9 sh
0.50 (10 contact hours)	9 sh	(overload permitted)

The academic dean of the discipline and the Dean of the Graduate School must approve, in writing, exceptions to the above guidelines.

Performance Evaluations: The supervisor must conduct a job performance evaluation (see Appendix D) once each semester and counsel the Graduate Fellow accordingly. Failure to perform required duties may lead to immediate termination of the fellowship.

Reappointment: Reappointment depends upon funding availability, satisfactory performance and the supervisor’s endorsement.

Graduate Research Fellow (GRF)

Graduate students who have been unconditionally admitted to the Graduate School and enrolled at the University. The Graduate Research Fellows are employed to perform research-oriented responsibilities within the University, under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The research may or may not be a research thesis project.

Appointment Criteria: All candidates must be unconditionally admitted to the graduate school. Successful candidates must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and make satisfactory progress toward the degree to continue as a Graduate Research Fellow.

Remuneration: Graduate Research Fellowships are only awarded when external research funds are available. External funds are defined as those funds coming to the university that are not currently under TROY’s or the TROY Foundation’s control. If matching funds are required to acquire grant funding, the University contribution will not exceed $7,500 per calendar year and may include an institutional scholarship for out-of-state tuition, if applicable. The maximum remuneration for Graduate Research Fellowships (external funds and matching internal funds) is $18,000. Should sponsored funding be withdrawn or terminate, the position will terminate without additional notice. The University is not financially obligated in any way to continue the fellowship.

Academic Enrollment: A Graduate Research Fellow must be enrolled as a graduate student and comply with the appropriate academic course load and workloads. The workload for a full-time Graduate Research Fellow will not exceed an average of 20 hours per week over the term of the appointment. Minimum full-time graduate enrollment will vary according to the graduate fellow’s work assignment and in accordance with the current Graduate Catalog as provided in the following table.

Workload	Minimum Graduate Academic Course Load	Maximum Graduate Academic Course Load
1.0 (20 contact hours)	6 sh	9 sh
0.50 (10 contact hours)	9 sh	(overload permitted)

The academic Dean of the discipline and the Dean of the Graduate School must approve, in writing, exceptions to the above guidelines.

Performance Evaluations: The supervisor must conduct a performance evaluation (see Appendix D) once each semester and counsel the Graduate Fellow accordingly. Failure to perform required duties may lead to the immediate termination of the fellowship.

Reappointment: Reappointment depends upon funding availability, satisfactory performance, and the supervisor's endorsement.

APPROVED BY: ACADEMIC STEERING COMMITTEE OCTOBER 28, 2008

(REVISED 8/13/13)

OPR: DR. MARY ANNE TEMPLETON

PERIOD OF APPOINTMENT

Graduate Assistants and Fellows are appointed for a specified period. The awarding of an assistantship or fellowship does not imply future employment.

A graduate student making satisfactory progress toward a degree will be eligible for an assistantship or fellowship for a maximum of twenty-four months. The Dean of the Graduate School may make exceptions to this time limit on an individual basis upon the request of the respective department. Application forms for assistantships/fellowships are available through the office of the dean of the discipline or the Troy University webpage (<http://www.troy.edu/graduateschool/financialaid.htm>).

TERMINATION

A graduate award may be terminated prior to the end of the appointment period for any of the following reasons:

1. The student is no longer enrolled in a graduate program.
2. The student is registered for fewer than six graduate semester credit hours during a regular semester or summer term (Exception: (a) If a student has made satisfactory progress toward obtaining the graduate degree and needs fewer than six graduate hours to complete the degree during the last semester, an exception may be granted by the Dean of the Graduate School. (b) If a student is classified as a graduate student and is required to take undergraduate courses for the graduate degree, either a minimum of nine undergraduate prerequisite hours or a minimum of three graduate hours and six undergraduate hours must be taken to qualify for a graduate assistantship.
3. The student's performance is determined to be unsatisfactory by the employing academic unit.

The office of the Dean of the Graduate School must be notified, in writing, by the employing academic unit upon termination of any Graduate Assistants and Fellows. Supervisors are responsible for submitting an action through PeopleAdmin to terminate Graduate Assistants/Fellows PRIOR TO THEIR LAST DAY OF WORK (indicating their last day in the “effective date” field).

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Graduate Assistant/Fellow will be notified in writing of all decisions that affect his or her status as an assistant/fellow. Advance notification of evaluation procedures and a summary of the completed evaluation will be provided each affected individual.

It is important to resolve, as early as possible, any disagreement that may arise between assistants/fellows and immediate supervisors. Should a problem arise in the work assignment, the graduate student has the right to initiate a grievance or to appeal a decision through the channels specified below.

The student shall first inform the immediate supervisor of the problem and, if necessary, appeal to the department chair or dean of the discipline. If the matter cannot be resolved in an informal manner, the following formal grievance procedure shall be followed:

1. If the grievance cannot be resolved in discussion with the immediate supervisor, a formal, written complaint must be filed with the Department Chair within three (3) working days after the conference described above. The Department Chair must give a written decision on the grievance within three (3) working days after receipt of the complaint.
2. If the grievance is not resolved with the Department Chair, a written appeal may be filed with the dean of the discipline not later than three (3) working days of receipt of the Department Chair's written decision on the grievance.
3. If the grievance is not resolved with the dean of the discipline, a written appeal may be filed with the Dean of the Graduate School not later than three (3) working days of receipt of the dean of the discipline's decision on the grievance. The decision of the Dean of the Graduate School is final.

Process for Posting Positions on PeopleAdmin

To Begin

- Go to the PeopleAdmin website: www.troyuniversityjobs.com/hr.
- Please log in with your User Name and Password. If you have not already created an account, click the link at the upper left hand corner “Create Account”.
- Using the menu items on the left side of screen under Position Descriptions
 - select: Start Action
 - select: New Position(and Request Posting)
- Pick a Classification from the dropdown list, then “Search”, then click “Select and Continue” for this Classification.

Position Details

The position details tab will include most of the position information. Select information has been provided, but you will need to fully review and update the position information. Any editable field with a red asterisk is a required field, and you will need to enter the information. Once the fields are populated the information will be retained within the position and will not have to be re-entered for future actions on the same position.

Proposed Job Duties

On the Proposed Job Duties tab, you should enter the specific Job Duties required for this position to create a Job Description. Be sure to indicate the percentage for each duty. To begin entering each individual duty, click the “Add New Entry” button. Enter each percent of time and duty, and click the “Add Entry” button. Percentages must add up to 100%. You may copy and paste from another document.

Supplemental Documentation

After continuing to the next page, you will be on the “Supplemental Documentation” tab. On this page, you may attach a Memo, Org Chart or Other document related to this position. In order to attach a document, click the “Attach” link. You can either browse and “Upload” the document from your computer, or copy and paste text into the “Paste a New Document” box. If you are attaching a document, make sure and confirm that the document has attached properly before proceeding.

Posting Form

The Posting Date and Closing Date fields allow you to request dates that control when applicants can apply to your job. The Posting Date is the date on which you would like your posting to be available to applicants, and the Closing Date is the date on which you want your posting to be removed from applicant view. Please allow for approval time when stating your anticipated dates.

The Optional and Required Applicant Documents fields will allow you to specify which documents you would like an applicant to attach when they apply to your job. By checking a required applicant document, applicants will be required to attach these documents before they can complete applying to your job. By checking an optional applicant document, applicants will have the option to attach, but are not required to attach. The “Other” document type can be anything you may need for your position. You will need to enter the specific details for what type of document an applicant should attach as “Other” document in the “Special Instructions” field.

Comments

The Comments Tab allows you to make comments associated with the position to the next levels of the approval process.

Saving/Approving the Action

After the Comments page, you will find a Summary page detailing all of the position information. Scroll down through this page to review the information you entered. The last step is to select an Action Status and click the “Continue” button either at the top or the bottom of this page. You can save the position information without submitting, or you can submit the position action by sending it forward for appropriate approvals. After making your selection, click “Confirm”.
