1. Meeting was called to order by Dr. John Dew.
Dr. John Dew gave a brief summary of approvals that have been sent in by SACS.
2. Wendy Broyles – update on the Homer reports
The reports are due on November 1st College of Health and Human Services is complete and College of Education is complete, the other colleges are finishing up. Dr. John Dew stated that these reports must be turned in on time and the Deans will be using them to report to the Chancellor in the Chancellor's Briefings. Wendy Broyles added that she has established non-academic teams Administrative Support, Student Support, and Public Community Service. If you are on this committee and you represent one of these areas you will be asked to be a part of the team you represent. Wendy Broyles said she would be sending out information by the end of the year, and the teams should start meeting soon after the beginning of the year.
3. Dr. John Dew – SACSCOC, ACHE, and Global Campus
The SACS team will be going to the SACSCOC annual conference next month. This will be when Troy University finds out if we have passed or placed on warning.
Major Assessment of Global Campus, Dr. Susan Aldridge visit. She has reported that we have not adequately resourced eCampus. The Chancellor and upper administration will be looking at ways to make sure that eCampus's money stays with eCampus. Dr. Dew announced there were 2 new ACHE commissioners, and they are both TROY supporters. There are 2 others that are coming up, one will be from the north and one from the south. Dr. Deb Fortune asked if we went to ACHE meeting to change the name of a program will this take a long time. Dr. Dew and others answered, they go as information items and they vote on all information items at one time. Discussion
